What's the Problem?

Think about one of the books that you read. Write about the main problem in the story. Then, write how the problem was solved.

A large rectangular area with a scalloped border, containing ten horizontal lines for writing.

Color the scene. Every time you read a book, cut out a snowflake and glue it on the scene.

Read a book about snow
Read to someone who lives in your house
Read with your mittens on
Read a story that takes place in the winter
Make a pillow fort and read in it
Read while sitting near a window
Read out loud
Make a blanket fort and read in it
Read a book about the seasons
Read to someone older than you
